Discharge Summary - Community-Acquired Pneumonia

Patient: John Doe (fictional), 67 years old. Admitted 3 March, discharged 8 March. Admitting diagnosis: right lower lobe community-acquired pneumonia confirmed by chest X-ray. CURB-65 score on admission was 2.

Hospital course: the patient received intravenous ceftriaxone 1 g daily and oral azithromycin 500 mg daily for three days. Fever resolved on day 3. Oxygen saturation improved from 89% on room air to 96%.

Synthetic document generated for software testing. Not real patient data.

Discharge Medications and Follow-up

Discharge medication: amoxicillin-clavulanate 875/125 mg twice daily for 5 more days to complete a 7-day antibiotic course.

Follow-up: primary care visit in 7 days. Repeat chest X-ray in 6 weeks to confirm resolution. Return immediately if shortness of breath worsens or fever above 38.5 C returns.

Synthetic document generated for software testing. Not real patient data.